Instruction can be given in any of the following areas:

Iron Play – Learn how to crunch the ball from the fairways, control your distances and gain the trajectory required to leave you more birdie putts!

Wood Play – Accuracy and loads of distance! That's what every golfer wants from the biggest stick in the bag, we will show you how!

Bunker Play – Golfers are so often disappointed with this area of their game, but when was the last time you had a serious practice session in a bunker, learn to love them!

Chipping – Be top of the up and down stats with a few simple but effective secrets about the short game.

Putting – Green reading, set-up, stroke and practice drills, putting is an art in itself and the easiest way to lower your handicap.

Pitching – Learn how to master that awkward 'in-betweeney' length, three ways, stock pitch, low spinner and high lob, ooh la la!

Training your Golfing Brain – The 15th club in the bag, learn how to train your brain to banish those golfing demons and breakthrough that barrier that so often wrecks your round.
